Introduction

Wifaq al Jamiaat ul Arabia was established in

Initially the Wifaq was confined to dissemination of religious education

Later, it turned into a comprehensive Exam Board covering a wide array of educational learning curriculum into its fold.

Aims and Objectives

- To align religious education with the contemporary realities of the Islamic world
- To make students live up to the Sunnah of Prophet Mohammad (SAW)
- To incubate religion harmony amongst different religious groups and denominational schools of thoughts
- To disseminate modern education in consonance with religious education
- To develop a harmony of thought amongst Muslims and non-Muslims alike
- To discourage sectarianism among all Muslim Thoughts

Raison d'etre of Creative Impulses

- To introduce the life-patterns of Prophet (SAW) and his Pious Companions to students and scholars alike
- To minimize evil and promote goodness in broader social context through training of students
- To enable students to seek higher education with kaleidoscopic understanding of the Muslim World, Global World and Islamic teachings

Exigency in Contemporary Times

- To revisit Islamic and religious thinking in view of contemporary global Challenges
- To formulate robust strategy to cope with the issues of fundamentalism, Islamophobia and cultural relativism
- To provide an intellectual platform for Occidental scholars to highlight strengths of Islamic culture, social life, political system, economic methods and history
- To gather all Islamic thinkers and scholars for collective musing to improve the understanding of Quran, Sunnah, Islam and Shariah to general masses

Academic Structure

There are four types of modes of education which are being offered:

01

Regular Students studying in affiliated Madaras

02

Private Students studying in unaffiliated Madaras

03

Online Teaching

04
